LUMBER—PROTEST FILED UNDER THE PROVISIONS OF SECTION 516 (b) OF THE TARIFF ACT OF 1930 AGAINST LIQUIDATION AT THE PORT OF SEATTLE OF AN ENTRY COVERING LUMBER

COLLECTORS OF CUSTOMS FURTHER INSTRUCTED REGARDING THE SUSPENSION OF THE LIQUIDATION OF ENTRIES COVERING LUMBER, THE SUBJECT OF TREASURY DECISIONS 47621 AND 48036

To Collectors of Customs and Others Concerned.

Reference is made to Treasury Decision 47621, dated April 5, 1935, in regard to the classification of and the rate of duty imposed on lumber of the character therein described, and to Treasury Decision 48036, dated November 23, 1935, ordering the suspension of the liquidation, pursuant to the provisions of Section 516 (b) of the Tariff Act of 1930 (U. S. C., title 19, sec. 1516 (b)) at all ports of all unliquidated entries of the merchandise in question imported or withdrawn from warehouse for consumption after the expiration of thirty days after the publication of Treasury Decision 47621. Under the provisions of Section 1352, title 19, U. S. Code, the application of Section 516 (b) of the Tariff Act of 1930 is suspended as "to any article with respect to the importation of which into the United States a foreign trade agreement has been concluded pursuant to this Act (U. S. C., title 19, sec. 1351) or to any provision of any such agreement."

The Canadian Trade Agreement (1935), Treasury Decision 48033, reduced the rates of duty and import tax on imported lumber entered for consumption or withdrawn from warehouse for consumption after January 1, 1936. Accordingly, collectors of customs will proceed with the liquidation of entries covering importations of lumber of the classes or kinds described in said Trade Agreement which have been entered for consumption or withdrawn from warehouse for consumption after January 1, 1936, without regard to the provisions of the aforementioned Treasury Decision 48036.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE.

Agricultural Adjustment Administration

NER—B-3—Supplement (a) Issued August 10, 1936

1936 AGRICULTURAL CONSERVATION PROGRAM—NORTHEAST REGION

BULLETIN NO. 3—SUPPLEMENT (A)

Acreage of Wheat in 1936 Seeded to Legumes.

Section 22 of part III of NER—B-3 is amended by adding the following paragraph at the end of such section:

For the purpose of meeting the conditions of section 4 of part II of Northeast Region Bulletin No. 1, Revised, as amended, with respect to the minimum acreage of soil-conserving crops and for the purpose of meeting the conditions of the preceding paragraph of this section, with respect to acreage of crop land seeded to soil-conserving crops in 1936, and for no other purpose, one-half of any acreage devoted to wheat harvested in 1936 which is grown in combination with, or immediately followed by, a biennial or perennial legume or a mixture seeded with at least 40 percent by weight of a biennial or perennial legume shall (notwithstanding the harvesting of wheat from the land in 1936) be regarded as used for the production of a soil-conserving crop in 1936. For all other purposes of the 1936 Agricultural Conservation Program for the Northeast Region (including the determination of the acreage of soil-depleting crops grown in 1936 and the determination of the soil-building allowance) the entire acreage of wheat so grown in combination with, or immediately followed by, such legumes shall be regarded as used for the production of a soil-depleting crop in 1936.

In testimony whereof, R. G. Tugwell, Acting Secretary of Agriculture, has hereunto set his hand and caused the official seal of the Department of Agriculture to be affixed in the city of Washington, District of Columbia, this 10th day of August 1936.

FARM CREDIT ADMINISTRATION.

FCA 14.

ORDER DECLARING OREGON-WASHINGTON JOINT STOCK LAND BANK OF PORTLAND INSOLVENT AND APPOINTING GEORGE B. GUTHRIE OF PORTLAND, OREGON, RECEIVER OF SAID BANK AND PLACING SAID BANK IN HIS HANDS AS SUCH RECEIVER

Whereas, the Oregon-Washington Joint Stock Land Bank of Portland, County of Multnomah, State of Oregon, is a corporation duly formed and organized under the provisions of the Federal Farm Loan Act, and there are outstanding farm loan bonds which are the obligations of the said Oregon-Washington Joint Stock Land Bank of Portland under said Act, on which interest is due and payable May 1, 1936, aggregating approximately $26,438.00; and

Whereas, the said Oregon-Washington Joint Stock Land Bank of Portland has informed the Farm Credit Administration that the board of directors of the bank on April 27, 1936, adopted a resolution that such interest be not paid; and

Whereas, the Oregon-Washington Joint Stock Land Bank of Portland has this day informed the Farm Credit Administration that demand has been duly made on the said bank for the payment of interest due and payable on May 1, 1936, on outstanding bonds and said bank has refused and failed upon such demand to pay said interest;

Therefore be it—

Ordered, pursuant to the authority of Section 29 of the Federal Farm Loan Act, Executive Order No. 6084 of the President of the United States dated March 27, 1933, and the Farm Credit Act of 1933:

1. That the Oregon-Washington Joint Stock Land Bank of Portland be and it hereby is declared in default of its obligations to holders of outstanding bonds for which it is liable, and it be and hereby is declared insolvent; and

2. That George B. Guthrie, of Portland, Oregon, be and he hereby is, appointed Receiver of the Oregon-Washington Joint Stock Land Bank of Portland, and said bank is placed in his hands as such Receiver and, as such Receiver he hereby is directed to take possession of the books, records, and assets of every description of said bank, to collect and account for all debts, dues, and claims belonging to it, and to take such other steps as may be proper and necessary in the premises, as the Land Bank Commissioner may from time to time direct or approve, in accordance with the provisions of the Federal Farm Loan Act; and

3. That said George B. Guthrie be and he hereby is required to execute and deliver to the Land Bank Commis-

tioner a bond approved by the Land Bank Commissioner in the sum of $50,000.00 with a good and sufficient surety thereon; such bond to be conditioned upon the accounting by the said George B. Guthrie well and truly for all moneys, notes, bonds, mortgages, documents, securities, and properties of every kind, whether real or personal, that may come into his hands as such Receiver, and upon the faithful performance in all respects of his duties as such Receiver.

CONVERSION OF CLASS B STOCK—AMENDMENT TO SECTION 104J OF THE REVISED RULES AND REGULATIONS FOR PRODUCTION CREDIT ASSOCIATIONS

Pursuant to the authority conferred upon the Governor of the Farm Credit Administration by the Farm Credit Act of 1933, particularly section 20 thereof, and pursuant to section 23 of said Act, the third paragraph of part (2) of subsection j of section 104 of the Revised Rules and Regulations for Production Credit Associations (Chap. V, Subdivision A, Sec. 104j, Federal Register Compilation) is hereby amended to read as follows:

Upon receipt of a written request by any stockholder for a conversion of his class B stock (accompanied by proper evidence of the authority to convert if the conversion is requested by anyone other than the holder of record), and upon the consent of the board of directors of the association to such conversion, the secretary of the association shall record the conversion on the books of the association and shall then send to the corporation as transfer agent a request for issuance of a class A stock certificate or certificates to such stockholder, together with proper evidence of the consent of the board of directors of the association to such conversion, and proper evidence that the conversion has been recorded on the books of the association. When any class B stockholder shall have ceased for a period of two consecutive years to be a borrower from the association, and shall not have requested a conversion of his class B stock, the secretary of the association shall inform its board of directors of that fact and shall record the conversion of such class B stock on the books of the association, and shall then send to the corporation a request for the issuance of a class A stock certificate or certificates to such stockholder, together with proper evidence that such conversion has been recorded on the books of the association.

The corporation shall not issue a class A stock certificate for such converted class B stock except upon request of the secretary of the association. Class A stock certificates issued by the corporation shall be forwarded to the association for delivery to the stockholder. If a class B stock certificate has been delivered to the stockholder, the association shall require the stockholder to surrender such certificate to the association for cancellation before the Class A stock certificate is delivered to him; provided, however, that if the class B stock certificate has been lost or destroyed, the board of directors of the association may, upon receiving satisfactory proof of such loss or destruction, permit the delivery of the class A stock certificate to him; provided further, however, that the board of directors may in its discretion require the owner of the lost or destroyed certificate to give a bond or other security in adequate amount as indemnity for any claim that may be made against the association, before the class A stock certificate is delivered to him.
